CIRCUIT COURT DRAWS BIG CROWD

SIX GET PRISON TERMS

The April term of circuit court that convened Tuesday noon had a number of important cases on the docket to be disposed of, and made the session unusually long, court closing this forenoon.

Judge Guy E. Smith disposed of the cases in the following manner:

The case of Robert Alexander for violation of the prohibition law was continued as also was the divorce case of Lena M. Clothier vs. Ernest E. Clothier and Pearl M. Gibbon vs. Edwin Gibbon.

In the case of the People vs. Ed. Headstate, for violation of the prohibition law, Headstate was found guilty by the jury and was sentenced by Judge Smith to serve from 1½ to 3 years in Jackson prison, with a recommendation of 8 years.

William Shad, rape, plead guilty to the charge and was sentenced to serve no less than 5 years nor more than 10 years in Jackson prison with the recommendation of 8 years.

In the case of the People vs. Earl Barber, for violation of the liquor law the defendant pleaded guilty and as this was his third offense, he was sentenced to Jackson prison to from 4 to 8 years with the recommendation that he serve 5 years.

Loren Richardson plead guilty to

TURNER LAW WOULD HELP CRAWFORD COUNTY

Representative Wm. Green of this district is an ardent supporter of the Turner bill and says he has every reason to believe that it will pass. In this bill it provides for the distribution of one to two million dollars to school districts having a tax rate over and above $10.00. On the basis of a $1,000,000 distribution Crawford county would receive the amount of $8,481.92 this year. On a $2,000,000 basis we would receive the sum of $16,963.84.

Other near by counties would benefit from this law on a million dollar distribution as follows:

Montmorency $4,718.78

Oscoda 1,983.74

Presque Isle 7,619.14

Roscommon 2,127.74

The heavy burden of tax comes principally from the school tax and it seems only fair that the poorer school districts be given support in the up keep of their school systems. More and more is being asked of teachers each year and consequently teacher salaries are increasing. The pupils of the poorer districts are entitled to have just as good teachers and just as competent training as are furnished pupils of the more wealthy school districts.

In the interest of our future citizens every possible assistance should be given in the interest of keeping up good schools.

John Wilfred Greenwood, Minister

ANNUAL PAST MASTERS MEETING

for three years, however after further investigation Judge Smith sentenced him from 1 to 14 years at the Michigan reformatory, Ionia, with the recommendation that he serve 1 year.

James McConnel, rape, plead guilty to the charges made against him and was sentenced to serve from 8 to 16 years in Jackson prison with a recommendation of 8 years.

Sentence in the case of Wm. Reamer for violation of the liquor law was deferred until next term of court.

The case of John Malco vs. Charles H. Marker, trespass on the case, was continued, owing to Mr. Marker having not fully recovered from an operation he underwent recently.

In the case of Mary J. Wood Estate, the case was continued to the July term of court, owing to the fact that one of the principal witnesses is at Rochester, Minn., recovering from an operation. When the case comes up in July a special jury is to be drawn.

In the matter of the petition of the Auditor General for the sale of certain land for the taxes assessed thereon for 1920 and previous years a decree was granted. Also decrees were granted in the case of Amabelle Purcell vs. Gavie Purcell, divorced, and Roscommon State Bank vs. Samuel E. New, et al., bill to quiet title.

MICH. LEGISLATIVE NEWS LETTER

Michigan Press Association, Lansing Bureau

There was a brilliant display of fireworks in the House Tuesday afternoon, despite the fact that both branches had passed the fireworks

banning bill which has been signed by the Governor and given immediate effect. The oratorial pyrotechnics were displayed when Rep. Callahan of Detroit arose in the defense of his bill to take private employment agencies out of the hands of the labor and industries commission and place control in a new special commission to be appointed by the governor, attacking Eugene Brock of the labor com-mision for an alleged dereliction of duty. Rep. Frank Wade defended

Brock and then Rep. Milton Palmer

of Detroit in a cold-blooded address

took Brock and his record up and down the line of denunciatory castigation. It was the first really acrimonious debate of the session and aroused great interest. Brock defended himself in the newspapers the following day, but his department is likely to undergo a searching investigation as a result of the rumpus.

Callahan's bill passed the House with out amendment by a heavy majority.

A bill by Rep. John Gillett, which would have permitted boards of supervisors to publish their proceedings

in pamphlet form instead of in county newspapers, met with such emphatic protest that Gillett amended the bill,

making county newspaper publication

mandatory, as before, and also authorizing pamphlets in addition, if the board so desires. In this form the bill passed the House.

The Snow income tax bill, a highly controversial measure, was passed by the House Thursday afternoon after a heated discussion, by a narrow margin, and now goes to the Senate for concurrence. The measure is claimed to have the favor of the administration. The bill levies a tax of two per cent on all incomes, with $500 exemption for a single man, $1000 for a married man, and $400 for each dependent child.

Senator Chet Howell has discovered that all of us are breaking the law

by not having the gas tanks on our automobiles painted bright red and labelled "Gasoline." He has introduced a bill in the Senate to free us

from legal penalties in this regard.

I hope it goes through.

The bill allowing townships to establish and maintain airports has passed the House, only the first of several bills which are on their way through to make aviation safe for democracy.

The Governor sent a report to the legislature early in the week of the status and condition of the Chelsea cement plant, but made no recommendations as to its disposal. There are varied opinions as to what to do with the plant, which is not a paying venture owing to its distance from a source of supply, the local supply of material having been exhausted. A suggestion that the plant be moved to some available location elsewhere

in the state, where material may be obtained, and the plant be modernized

to make the continued employment of convicts profitable is being seriously discussed.

Talk of a probable date for final adjournment is heard among the leaders of the state congress which is a good sign. Both branches are working overtime in getting lesser meaasures out of the way, but there is a lot of business yet to be done before the session closes. May 10 is the most popular date suggested, but some of the optimists think it can be made a week earlier.

A joint committee of both houses

is busy investigating charges made by Rep. DeLand that the utilities commission was not functioning properly. DeLand demanded an investigation and the commission promptly

THE CHINESE NEW YEAR
An interesting story about China from Rev. H. G. C. Hallock, an American missionary to that country was recently received. In it he tells about the Chinese new year. His letter is extremely interesting and we are glad to pass it on to our readers. It reads as follows:

Shanghai, China, Feb. 15, 1929.
Dear Editor:

We are in the midst of the Chinese big feast—Chinese New Year. Every one's birthday comes on this day. Should a child be born in even the last hour of the last day of the old year it would be two years old on New Years' Day. Every store was closed. All work stopped. But it was not quite! It was like many Fourth of July's in one. Oh! the fire-crackers! At midnight I was wakened by a vast broadside of large and small firecrackers and they kept it up for days. In the morning the ground was covered as by a red snow—the "confetti" of exploding fireworks. Firecrackers are but a part of the feast—the noisy part.

The last day of the year everybody is busy—the men at closing up their accounts. All bills must be collected and all debts paid. Who be to the man who does not pay his debts. The women are very busy. The house must be made as clean as a pin and decorated, and the brooms hidden—bad luck if they appear on New Year. Before the New Year sun rises all kinds of food must be gotten ready! Guests—many—will come during those days and they must be feasted.

Few people see slumber the last night of the old year. But when the sun rises, calm reigns over the household. As one walks out between 6 and 9 a.m. the whole town is asleep. Sunday indeed! But excitement arouses them and about 10 o'clock you'll find the streets alive with people dressed in their best "bib & tucker" and you hear, "Kong Hyi Fah-dzai!"—"Congratulations and abundant wealth to you" shouted from one to another. The closed doors are plastered with appropriate sayings written on blood-red strips of paper. Go to open spaces of the city and see crowds encircling puppet shows, acrobats, monkey performers, squirming dragons, entertainers of all kinds and peddlers of sweets and children's toys—Vanity Fair! Go to the temples and you find thousands burning incense and candles before all the idols, praying for wealth, old age and bliss.

One interesting god connected with the New Year is the god-of-wealth which is worshipped especially on the 5th birthday. The money spent on firecrackers in his honor would pay China's national debt. Few begin work again until he is properly worshipped. Another is the kitchen-god. He is a paper god and sits over the stove in the kitchen where he spies on the doings of the family for a year. On the 23rd of the 12th month he is given a big feast. Sweet syrup is put on his mouth and he is put in a beautiful paper sedan chair and burned in glorious style, accompanied by fireworks—which is sending him to the Upper God to report on their year's doings—all this fuss and sweetness is to bribe him to speak well of their family to his majesty. When he returns on the last night of the old year—a new idol is bought and placed with little ceremony—in the old niche—it will be a year before he reports again—why "that" him now?

Next to idol worship gambling takes a big place in New Year celebrations—gambling everywhere! What they eat and drink, and the firecrackers, and gambling, all in some way or other, symbolize or point to the sound "Kao-sen"—excuse! in the sense of rising high in wealth from the Superintendent of Documents at 15 cents a copy.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Mexican Rebels Beaten and Slaughtered at Reforma; Wisconsin Votes Wet.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

MEXICO'S revolution, or at least a great portion of it, was drawn in an ocean of blood last week, if federal statements are reliable. The rebel army of General Escobar, commander in chief of the movement, having been driven for miles by the troops of Gen. Juan Almazan, concentrated in the city of Jimenez, Chihuahua, and for several days fought desperately to hold the place. They were well entrenched and Almazan gives them credit for extreme bravery. But the assaults of the federal infantry, artillery, cavalry and air forces were too much for them and they withdrew from the city to Reforma, 12 miles away. General Serrato's cavalry, meanwhile, was hurried to the north of Reforma and there destroyed all the bridges and culverts, and when Almazan's air scouts reported that the rebels could retreat no further, he ordered an attack in full force. Escobar and other rebel generals saw they were trapped and fled, leaving their infantry to fight alone. These men took refuge behind their troop trains and the battle there was described by Almazan as the bloodiest in years of Mexican history. Neither side asked for quarter and the slaughter was tremendous. The rebel dead covered the battlefield and many hundreds of their wounded fell into the hands of the federales.

The entire action, which began at Corralitos on March 31 and ended in the smashing victory at Reforma, was declared by the federal commander to be decisive. In his report to General Calles he praised highly the work of all branches of his army, and also paid a compliment to Escobar's military ability. In Sonora and other regions the rebels, in their encampments, were still carrying on the aviators in raids over the federal fortifications at Naco, creating a lot of excitement by dropping two or three bombs on the American side of the international boundary, one of them injuring an American motion picture man. This and the possibility of similar incidents gave considerable concern to the State department in Washington. The Mexican federal troops held at Eagle Pass, Texas, after their retreat across the border when the rebels captured Juarez, were ordered released by President Hoover at the request of the Mexican government.

EXPLORATIONS IN ALASKA
Although more than 60 years has passed since Alaska, "eward's Folly," was purchased from Russia, says the Geological Survey, there are still large areas in that northern territory about which little more is known today than before the transfer to the American flag. However, it is to be remembered that Alaska contains 800,000 square miles, nearly one-fifth the area covered by the United States itself. The task of mapping this great wilderness has been in progress since 1898 by the Geological Survey, and although it is still far from completed, each year shows progress in the inventory that Uncle Sam is making of his northern possessions.

In a new, unexplored country, where streams are too swift for boating and the only trails are those of the wild animals, the surveyor must still use the primitive methods of transport—the slow but sure pack horse and the boat dragged by hand through water too swift for even the modern power boat. Both of the methods were used by the Geological Survey expedition that in 1926 undertook to extend topographic and geological surveys into the upper portion of the basin of the Skwentna River. The Skwentna is a large western tributary of the Susitna River and drains a hitherto unexplored area in the heart of the Alaska Range south east of Rainy Pass. The party of four camped in addition to the topographer and geologist, went to the upper basin of the Skwentna River. The other men, with most of the supplies, provided with a shallow draft boat and outboard motor, proceeded up the Susitna, Vena, and Skwentna Rivers, traveling by the use of the motor where that was possible, and wading and dragging the boat by hand through the miles of rapids. At the point where even this kind of boating was no longer possible, the two parties joined and traveled southward up the Skwentna River into the very heart of the great mountain range. No human being was seen during a period of over two months, and even the few signs of native camps indicated that they were 20 or 30 years old. In September, when the approach of winter put an end to the work, the expedition retraced its own route to the coast.

As a result of the season's work about 700 square miles of hitherto unexplored territory was mapped geologically and topographically, and 50 square miles, previously mapped in an exploratory way, was remapped and corrected. This work gave a clue to the position and courses of the rivers that drain many thousand square miles of one of America's great mountain ranges, and to approach to other unexplored areas. The results of this exploration have just been issued by the U. S. Geological Survey as Bulletin 707-B. By Stephen R. Capps, in which the geography and geology of the Skwentna River country are described. The report is accompanied by a map on a scale of about 4 miles to the inch, on which the drainage and the distribution of the rock formations are shown. The report may be purchased in the sense of rising high in wealth from the Superintendent of Documents at 15 cents a copy.

The Avalanche, Grayling, Michigan, has managed the affairs of the Austrian republic, has resigned, together with his cabinet which was made up of men from the Christian Socialist party. Opposition to Doctor Seipel had been increasing since the great riots of July, 1927. He said he could have continued to resist criticism as a government official, but that he could not hold his office in the face of opposition to him personally as a priest. The church, he said, was his chief concern.

Austrian Foreign Minister Poloncaro, Foreign Minister, Italian, Senor de Leon, General Pershing, J. Pierpont Morgan and Owen D. Young. The casket was accompanied by two squadrons of republican guards, four platoons of infantry and representatives of all the official circles and American organizations in Paris, and the line of march was lined with infantry under the command of the military governor of Paris. After brief church services the body was taken to Brest by the embassy staff and there turned over to the French government which transferred it to the light cruiser Tourville as a salvo of 10 guns was fired. The cruiser was to bring Mr. Herrick's remains to the United States, being due in New York on April 12. Following a parallel course with it was the Aquitania, bearing Mrs. Parmenter Herrick, the late ambassador's daughter-in-law.

SIGNAL and house committees were exceedingly busy formulating farm relief legislation for the extraordinary session of congress. Among these heard, the most important was Secretary of Agriculture Hyde, who said he was giving his personal views but who, it was taken for granted, was expressing the ideas of President Hoover. He placed emphasis upon his belief that legislation should confer broad powers upon the farm board without attempting to define its exact procedure. The board, he indicated, must be depended on to provide the real solution of the agricultural problem. In response to questions Mr. Hyde expressed the opinion that a board of seven would be less than half of twelve, that bipartisan representation on the board was acceptable, but that he objected to geographical representation. He said the board should be within the Department of Agriculture instead of an entirely independent agency.

Some members of the committee exhibited an unfriendly spirit toward the administration's proposals, but Representative Aswell of Louisiana Democrat, declared that the Hoover program would have his complete support. He said: "It has met with a cool reception. Pray much for China. Kindest regards and best wishes." Yours in Christ's glad service, Rev. H. G. C. Hallock. P. S. Enclosed is a Chinese kitchen god.

VICE PRESIDENT CURTIS put up a rather embarrassing problem, it is likely to be especially embarrassing to Mr. Curtis—As every one knows, he is a widower, and he took to Washington his half-sister, Mrs. Edward R. Gann, to be the hostess of his establishment. Before Mr. Stimson assumed office his predecessor, Mr. Kellogg, after study of precedents, ruled that while Mrs. Gann might sit where she pleased at dinners given in the Vice President's home, she must be seated below the wives of ambassadors and ministers at official dinners where she and Mr. Curtis were guests.

PROMINENT in its many ramifications insists on holding a place on the front page every day. Tuesday the voting population of Wisconsin went to the polls and by a majority of about 2 to 1 defeated a state legislature to repeal the state dry enforcement laws and to remove the penalty on 2.75 per cent beer. The beer naturally were jubilant—but the dry leaders were not dismayed and asserted that the referendum was futile. They held that the dry laws marred a majority of the counties, and that the legislators were bound to follow the wishes of their constituents rather than of the state as a whole. Should both houses pass a repeal measure it would place Gov. Walter J. Kohler in a delicate position—he defied President Hoover's resolution of "concurrent endorsement of prohibition by states"; if he should sign or veto the bill he would alienate either wet or dry backing.

FINANCIAL operations during March, according to a treasury statement, resulted in a reduction of the gross public debt by $108,000,000; and the net balance of the general fund on March 31 was more than $350,000,000 greater than a month before—funds thus being available for further retrenchment of government securities.

During April, the reduction of the public debt during the fiscal year ending June 30 next is expected to exceed $700,000,000. Treasury officials and congressional leaders are agreed that it is too early to consider tax reductions, preferring to wait until it becomes certain that income tax revenues will maintain the present high level.

EMPLOYEES of the Loray cotton mill at Gastonia, N. C., are on strike and last week they became so demonstrative that the police became scattered and called on the governor for help. Several units of the state National Guard were ordered to the town and the disorders were quelled.

In the case of Congressman William M. Morgan, who was indicted at Jacksonville, Fla., last October on charges of bringing a trunkful of liquor into the country from Cuba, surrendered to the federal authorities in Chicago and gave bond for his appearance for trial in Key West in May. He declined to be interviewed but denied he was charged.

STUYVESANT FISH and some of his friends are exercised over the fact that his cruiser yacht was held up in New York harbor by enforcement agents and searched for contraband liquor. Mr. Fish said the boat was fired upon. No liquor was found on the vessel. Federal officials in New York after investigation declared the action of the enforcement men was entirely proper since the boat did not stop at their signals and the shots were fired high in the air.

A MANULLAH KHAN, former king of Afghanistan, began last week the drive by which he hopes to regain the throne he relinquished. With 30,000 soldiers he marched on Kabul and there were vague reports of heavy fighting with the troops of Bacha Siachan, the self-styled king. Amanullah's forces were said to be armed with Russian rifles and ammunition, which was taken to mean that the Soviet government had interested itself in his behalf. Prince Omar Khan, member of the Afghan royal family, who recently escaped confinement in Ashkhabad, is reported as likely to take the field against Amanullah supporting his own claim to the throne.

CHANCELLOR SEIPEL who for six years has managed the affairs of the Austrian republic, has resigned, together with his cabinet which was made up of men from the Christian Socialist party. Opposition to Doctor Seipel had been increasing since the

two STURDY-RICH MOTOR OILS

Polarine-Iso-Vis

WHICH do you favor? Both are good motor oils—rich and sturdy. Both meet the new motoring conditions of engines running hotter because of higher compression and faster driving.

Polarine has a record of twenty years of outstanding service. Many thousands of motorists demand it wherever they go. If you want a smooth running motor—use Polarine—drain and refill your crankcase every five hundred miles.

Iso-Vis is newer. No other oil like it. It has a constant viscosity. It will not break down—it will not thin out—it lubricates faithfully and well all frictional surfaces. It wears and wears and wears!

Many Iso-Vis enthusiasts drive for a thousand miles or more without changing oil. Iso-Vis is as efficient on the last mile as on the first.

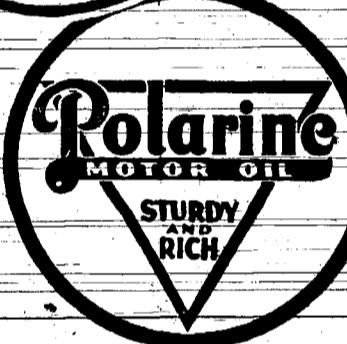

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) recommends both. Which do you favor?

DIPPING INTO SCIENCE

Why Damp Clothing Injures.

The reason we catch cold from sleeping on damp sheets or from wearing damp clothes is because the dampness absorbs the heat from our bodies more rapidly than they can make it up. This lowers our power of resistance, making us more susceptible to the disease germs which provoke colds, pneumonia, bronchitis, etc.

MICHIGAN LEGISLATIVE NEWS LETTER

responded with a request that the investigation be made and most thoroughly. A report is expected within a couple of weeks.

The Senate is still wrangling over a capital punishment bill, which the committee seems unable to agree upon. Likely something along that line will come out from under cover of the judiciary committee handout next week, but probably with flaws from the blanket all over it.

The appropriation bills will be probably the principal topic of discussion next week, and they will likely go through in a hurry, because very detail has been studied and discussed in committee meetings, and practically all details agreed upon.

None of the educational institutions will get all they have asked for, but the cut will be equalized so that all will be fairly treated so far as possible without making the tax burden too heavy.

The tobacco tax measure has been altered to apply only to cigarettes, on which a tax of $2.00 per 1000 will be levied, if the Lemon bill goes through according to schedule.

The Marion bill in the House asks that every automobile driver must carry at least $10,000 liability insurance, unless he can satisfy the authorities that he is personally worth at least $11,000.

The Senate has passed the income

bill, with an amendment which will allow smaller mesh nets in the Saginaw district for herring. The bill will now go back to the House for concurrence in the amendment and if the judges refuse to change the matter will probably go to a conference committee.

After a hot session in the House Friday morning the Turner Senate bill appropriating $2,000,000 in aid of the poor school districts in the state was passed, for the day at the Friday morning session and will be up again Monday. It provides that all districts in which school taxes are more than $10 per $1000 valuation will share in a pro rata distribution of the fund. This will help out the many rural districts of the state which are overburdened under the proposed tax.

The Peters corporation tax bill passed the House and if approved by the Senate will permit taxing of intangible assets held by out of state corporations.

The bill allowing the conservation commission to sell oil rights on lands was ditched, then resurrected and then passed with an amendment that oil and mineral rights may be sold to the person holding title to the lands.

More than 100 obsolete laws were stricken from the statute books at one fell swoop by the straight bill.

The House Wednesday passed the bank and trust company bills which were prepared by the banking department. Said the bills will prevent the organization of any more so-called industrial banks. The most important change, according to the state

banking department will be the granting of trust powers to banks, without requiring them to set aside portions of their capital and surplus for separate funds for that purpose.

Congressman Grant Hudson made

talks from the rostrums of both

House and Senate Thursday. Later

in the Senate he was scored by Sen-

is boss.

They never drink coffee or tea.

They always say milk is the best for me.

They go to bed early at night.

When they get up they feel alright.

They play out in the nice clean dirt.

The hands it does not hurt.

Home from school they do not play

on the way,

Because their mother they would not disobey.

And every day their cheeks grew redder still.

Their folks they had no doctor bills.

These are the rules that we should follow.

And our health we will not defeat.

Hygiene Poem

I visit the dentist twice a year,

Such bad teeth I cannot bear.

If I could keep them white and pearly,

I would visit the dentist more early.

I hate teeth that are bad.

If I had them I would be sad.

Bacteria which I do not like,

Bacteria is the hardest to fight.

I keep my fingernails clean,

Oh! my, don't they look keen?

I sleep with my windows open,

I play in the fresh air, out in the open.

My Health rules are my friends,

They are the ones on which I should depend.

This big, red, apple which is round,

I am going to eat the apple to make me big and strong.

Milk I should drink,

Which is quite true I think.

How much power is in your garden?

NATURE can do only so much with any seed. The seed itself must contain the promise and the power. You would feel convinced of the power of Ferry's purebred Seeds if you could see the great Ferry stock seed farm and trial gardens. Here are acres and acres of specimen plants. Every plant that is mature is big, vigorous, beautiful, and bountiful. Only the best plants are allowed to mature—all else are weeded out. Any plant that doesn't produce true to type gets weeded out. And only seeds from the plants that measure up to the Ferry standards in size, color, flavor, productivity—are the Ferry's Seeds you can buy.

In these seeds is the power to produce flowers of superb beauty, and vegetables of superior flavor, and size.

Surely all the work you put into your garden deserves just these seeds. Ferry's Seeds have to be all you expect when you buy them. In addition, they are fresh. No packet of Ferry's Seeds is ever carried over by the dealer for sale the second season. Ferry's Seeds may be had at the store around the corner. Write at once for the Ferry's Seed Annual—with its good garden advice. Address D. M. Ferry & Co., Dept. H, Detroit, Mich.

Does the Oil you're using now have the 4 essentials of complete and proper lubrication?
1. Low Carbon Content
2. Non-fouling Carbon
3. Ideal body at all Operating Temperatures
4. Low Pour Point

Check your present oil for these four characteristics. Every oil, of course, has one or the other. A few rates can be given to prove the point. Shell Motor Oil combines them all.

After all

Isn't this the real test of motor oil?

THERE is no simple way to check the quality of motor oil. Not color . . . Not the way it feels between the fingers . . . Not even price . . . And not mileage between crankcase changes.

Oil must have four characteristics, engineers say, if lubrication is to be both complete and correct.

Thousands of automobile owners have found one oil—Shell Motor Oil—which meets the requirements in every way.

Regular users of Shell Motor Oil report a marked reduction in carbon removal jobs. They enjoy amazing freedom from power losses due to carbon accumulations. That's because Shell has an extremely low carbon content
